

Shame Informed therapy

This is for Qualified counsellors and therapist looking to develop skills in working the shame and attachment in the therapy relationship.

This runs over 1 full day 6 hours teaching.

This is an experiential based course, where participants will get the opportunity to explore shame and attachment for clients and self-reflection.

In person days will incorporate creative therapy approaches

Costs:
£50 per person